Canoe Pass:
Stormy Lake & Clear Lake are almost one lake. They are divided by two very narrow channels barely passable by boat.

The Elephant:
An impressively large erratic boulder!
Where did it come from?

The Bluff:
A sheer cliff face rising 100m straight out of the water!

Scotts Dam:
This dam maintains the water level on Stormy Lake. Below the dam is a beautiful rapid. Follow the shoreline trail for a nice view.

Grawbarger Portage:
When the water is high you can paddle down this rapid. When the water is low you will need to portage. Sorry!
